

Prepositions of Location
Koung, Sing Wai
The Education University of Hong Kong

Worksheets

Activity 1 Cut and Stick Activity

Below are some descriptions of the scene of a murder case.
Please cut and stick the objects onto the picture according to the descriptions in order to help the police.

1. There is a knife under the table.
2. There is a gun on the sofa.
3. There is blood on the table.
4. There is a cat next to the sofa.
5. There is a pen in the man's right hand.
6. There is a bookshelf between the table and the sofa.

Activity 2

You are the only person who is in the crime scene. You are telling the police about what you see. Please describe the location of different objects by completing the sentences below. Use the correct prepositions.

in on under next to between

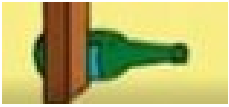

a knife

1. There is a knife _____ the bread.

a piece of paper

2. There is a piece of paper _____ the table.

 rubbish	3. There is some rubbish _____ the rubbish bin.
 blood	4. There is blood _____ the wall.
 a glass bottle	5. There is a glass bottle _____ the table.
 a man	6. There is a man lying _____ the bed and the oven.
 a backpack	7. There is a backpack _____ _____.

Do you think it is a suicide case or a murder case?

Why?

Activity 3

You are the only person who is in the crime scene. You are telling the police what you see. Please describe the location of the 6 objects below using the correct prepositions.

 a knife	 a gun	 blood
 a box	 an alarm clock	 a man

in on under next to between

1. There is a knife _____.
2. There is a box _____.
3. There is a gun _____.
4. There is an alarm clock _____.
5. There is blood _____.
6. There is a man lying _____ the table and the sofa.